

Job Description: Post Graduate Fellows/Associate Psychotherapists (pre-licensed clinicians and LSWs)

Mango Tree Counseling & Consulting seeks post-graduate fellows (provide the following benefits:

- A competitive rate
- Referrals and consultation
- Administrative pay for program planning
- Meaningful experiences in doing community programming
- Paid supervision and consultation for our clinicians
- Marketing and advertising
- Administrative support: billing services, reminder texts, and setting up patient charts.
- Free use of office space and/or therapy technology
- Mentorship and professional development and networking opportunities
- $500.00 budget for therapists - we offer a detailed group supervision curriculum, individual supervision with our senior clinicians, and mentorship to support you in pursuing your clinical license. We offer skills clinics for

In addition to providing therapy, our team conducts programming in local Asian-American Communities. We are mission-driven and seek folx interested in development, giving care, and deepening relationships with the larger Asian/Asian-American community.

We are requesting availability during the weekends and evenings (flexible with this) and a total of 10-25 hours of availability per week.

Before onboarding, we will need a copy of your clinical license, malpractice insurance, and a completed CAQH application. Knowledge of Asian Languages is a huge plus (Arabic, Mandarin, Cantonese, Tagalog, Vietnamese, Khmer, Indonesian, Dari, Hindi, Urdu), but not required.

We encourage Bi-Cultural and folx who know/have experience with content areas like Asian-American identity development and minority stress theory.

We are honored to hear from you! Please email info@mangotreecc.com if you are interested in learning more about this position.

Part-Time/Contract